A Joshua AND White Light Course

DAY EIGHT - THE LAW OF ATTRACTION (WHITE LIGHT)

This physical reality is a mechanism that propels the expansion of Source Energy. Universal Consciousness, God or Source Energy, are references to the eternal conscious energy that is the foundation of all creation. Everything is contained within this consciousness and is a part of the whole. This Source Energy is always expanding and the Law of Attraction is but one of many laws that support this expansion.

Everything in the universe is energy (frequency). Everything in the universe is also dual. Yin/Yang, Positive/Negative and North/South are on the same line or string of frequency, just at opposite “ends”. This is the dual nature of the Universe. Both sides are fundamental to creation. At its core, the Law of Attraction states that frequencies of the same type are drawn to each other. No matter where the frequency exists along the string, it will be drawn to other frequencies on that same line or string. This is why the performer and the audience are a match, and so is one performer to another performer. The Law of Attraction is constant, consistent and neutral. The Universe does not recognize one end or the other as “good” or “bad”.

When two vibrations (frequencies) are drawn together, they form one greater/expanded vibration. This new expanded vibration can never be separated from itself. In this attractive universe, one plus one never equals two, it is simply a greater ONE. No aspect of this new vibration can ever be separated from its new self. Just as no aspect of Source can ever be separated from Source.

The moment that a desire emerges, the manifestation of that desire is also created energetically. That manifestation exists at a frequency or vibration. For you to experience that which you have created energetically, you must become a vibrational match to that creation. To do this you must raise your perspective on yourself. You must feel the emotion of the already manifested desire. Do not expect the manifested desire to bring the feeling. This is not the way the system works. The feeling brings the manifested desire. To experience love, feel loved. To experience healing, feel healthy. To experience wealth, feel abundant. The practice of raising your perspective on yourself within your reality is the path to the realization of your true desires. It is the gateway to your unimaginable life.
